

the celtic way

Celtic wisdom for today

DEFINING CHARACTERISTICS

Creation Spirituality

Original Blessing

Monastic Tradition

Pilgrimage

Hospitality

Holy Ordinary

GREEN MAN

Istanbul, 6th Century

Iraq, 2nd Century

Westminster Abbey

AXIS MUNDI

Banyan tree (Hindu)

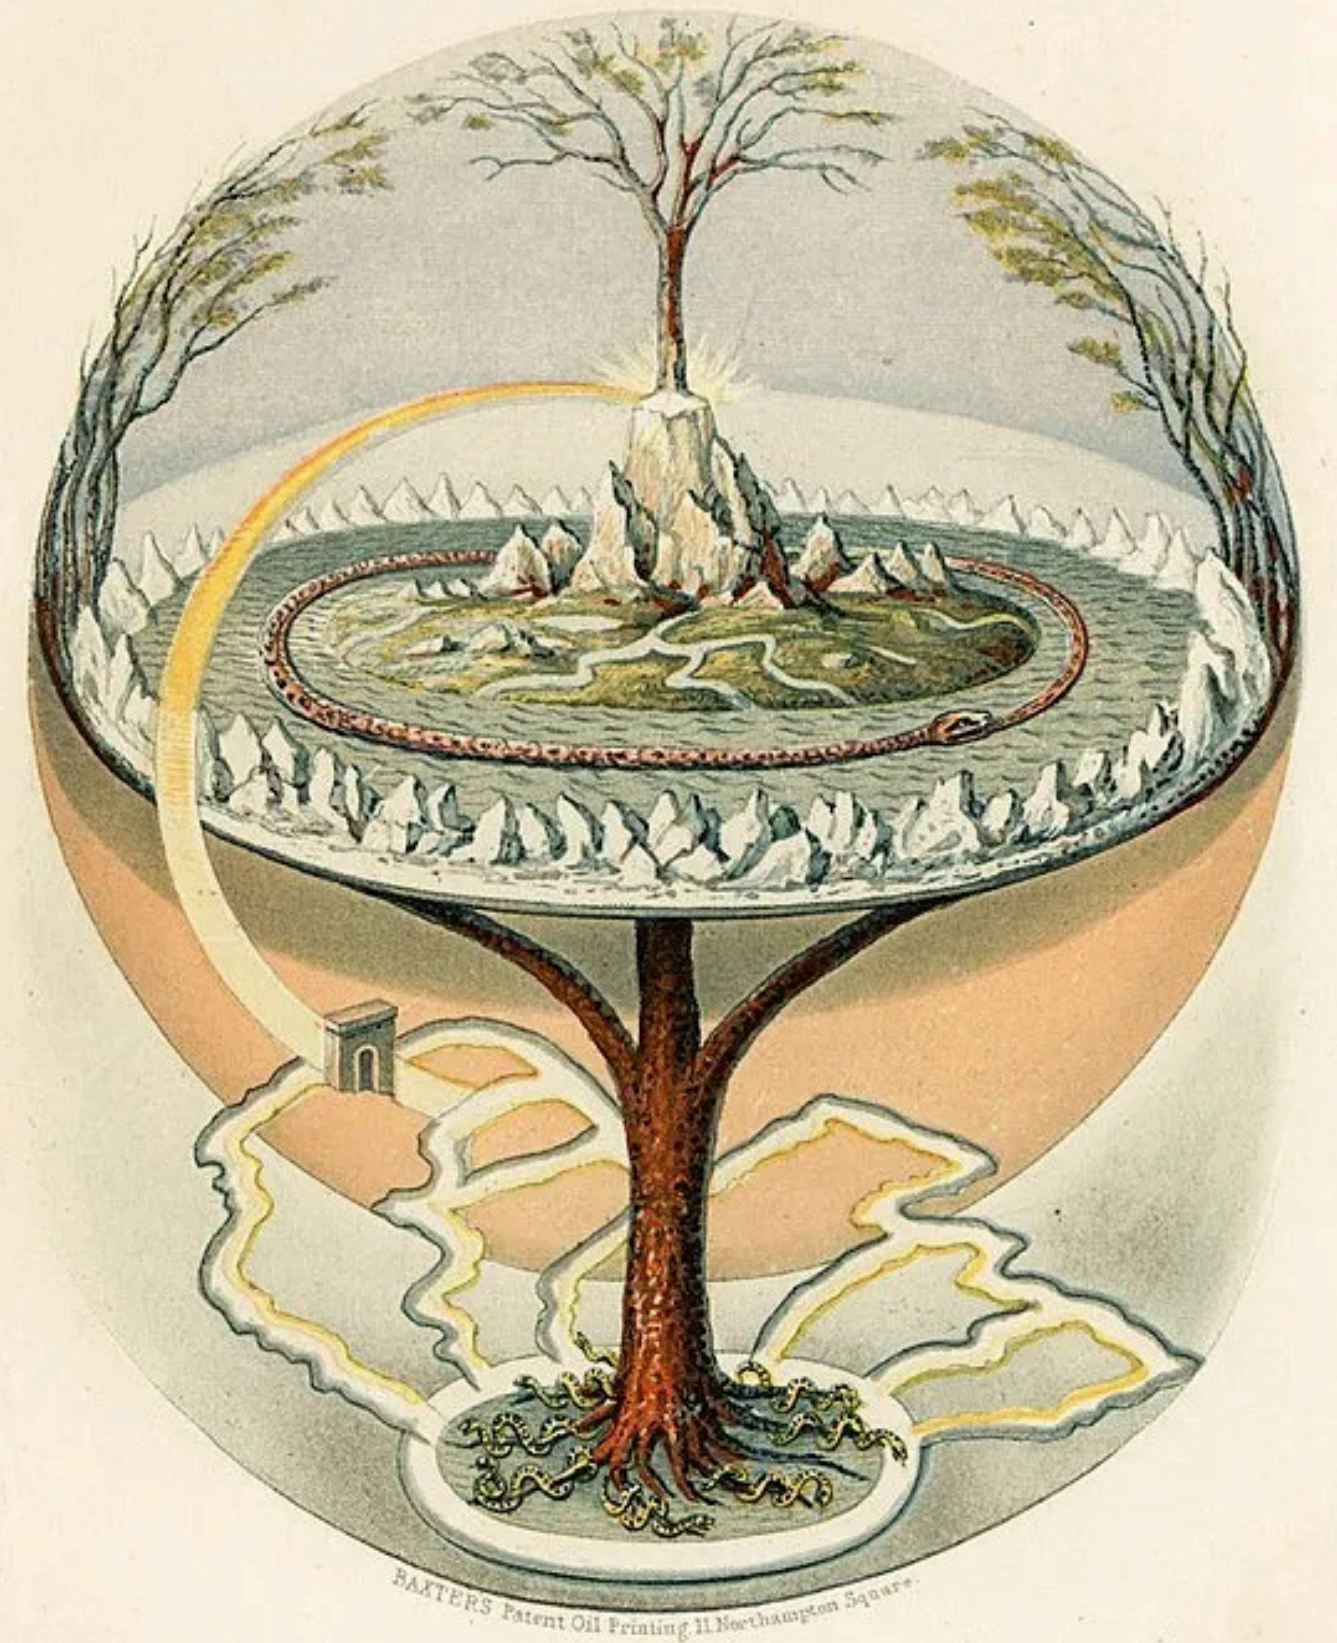

Bodhi Tree (Buddha)

Tree of Life

Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil

Yggdrasill (Norse)

Thor's Oak (Germanic)

YGGDRASIL,

The Mundane Tree.

402

PILLAR STONES

Market Cross, Langholm

Market Cross and Stone of Mannon, Clackmannon

Market Cross, Wigton

CELTIC CROSS

St. Mylor Cross

Llandbadarn Fawr Cross

ISLE OF ARRAN

INNER HEBRIDES

CHRIST FISH

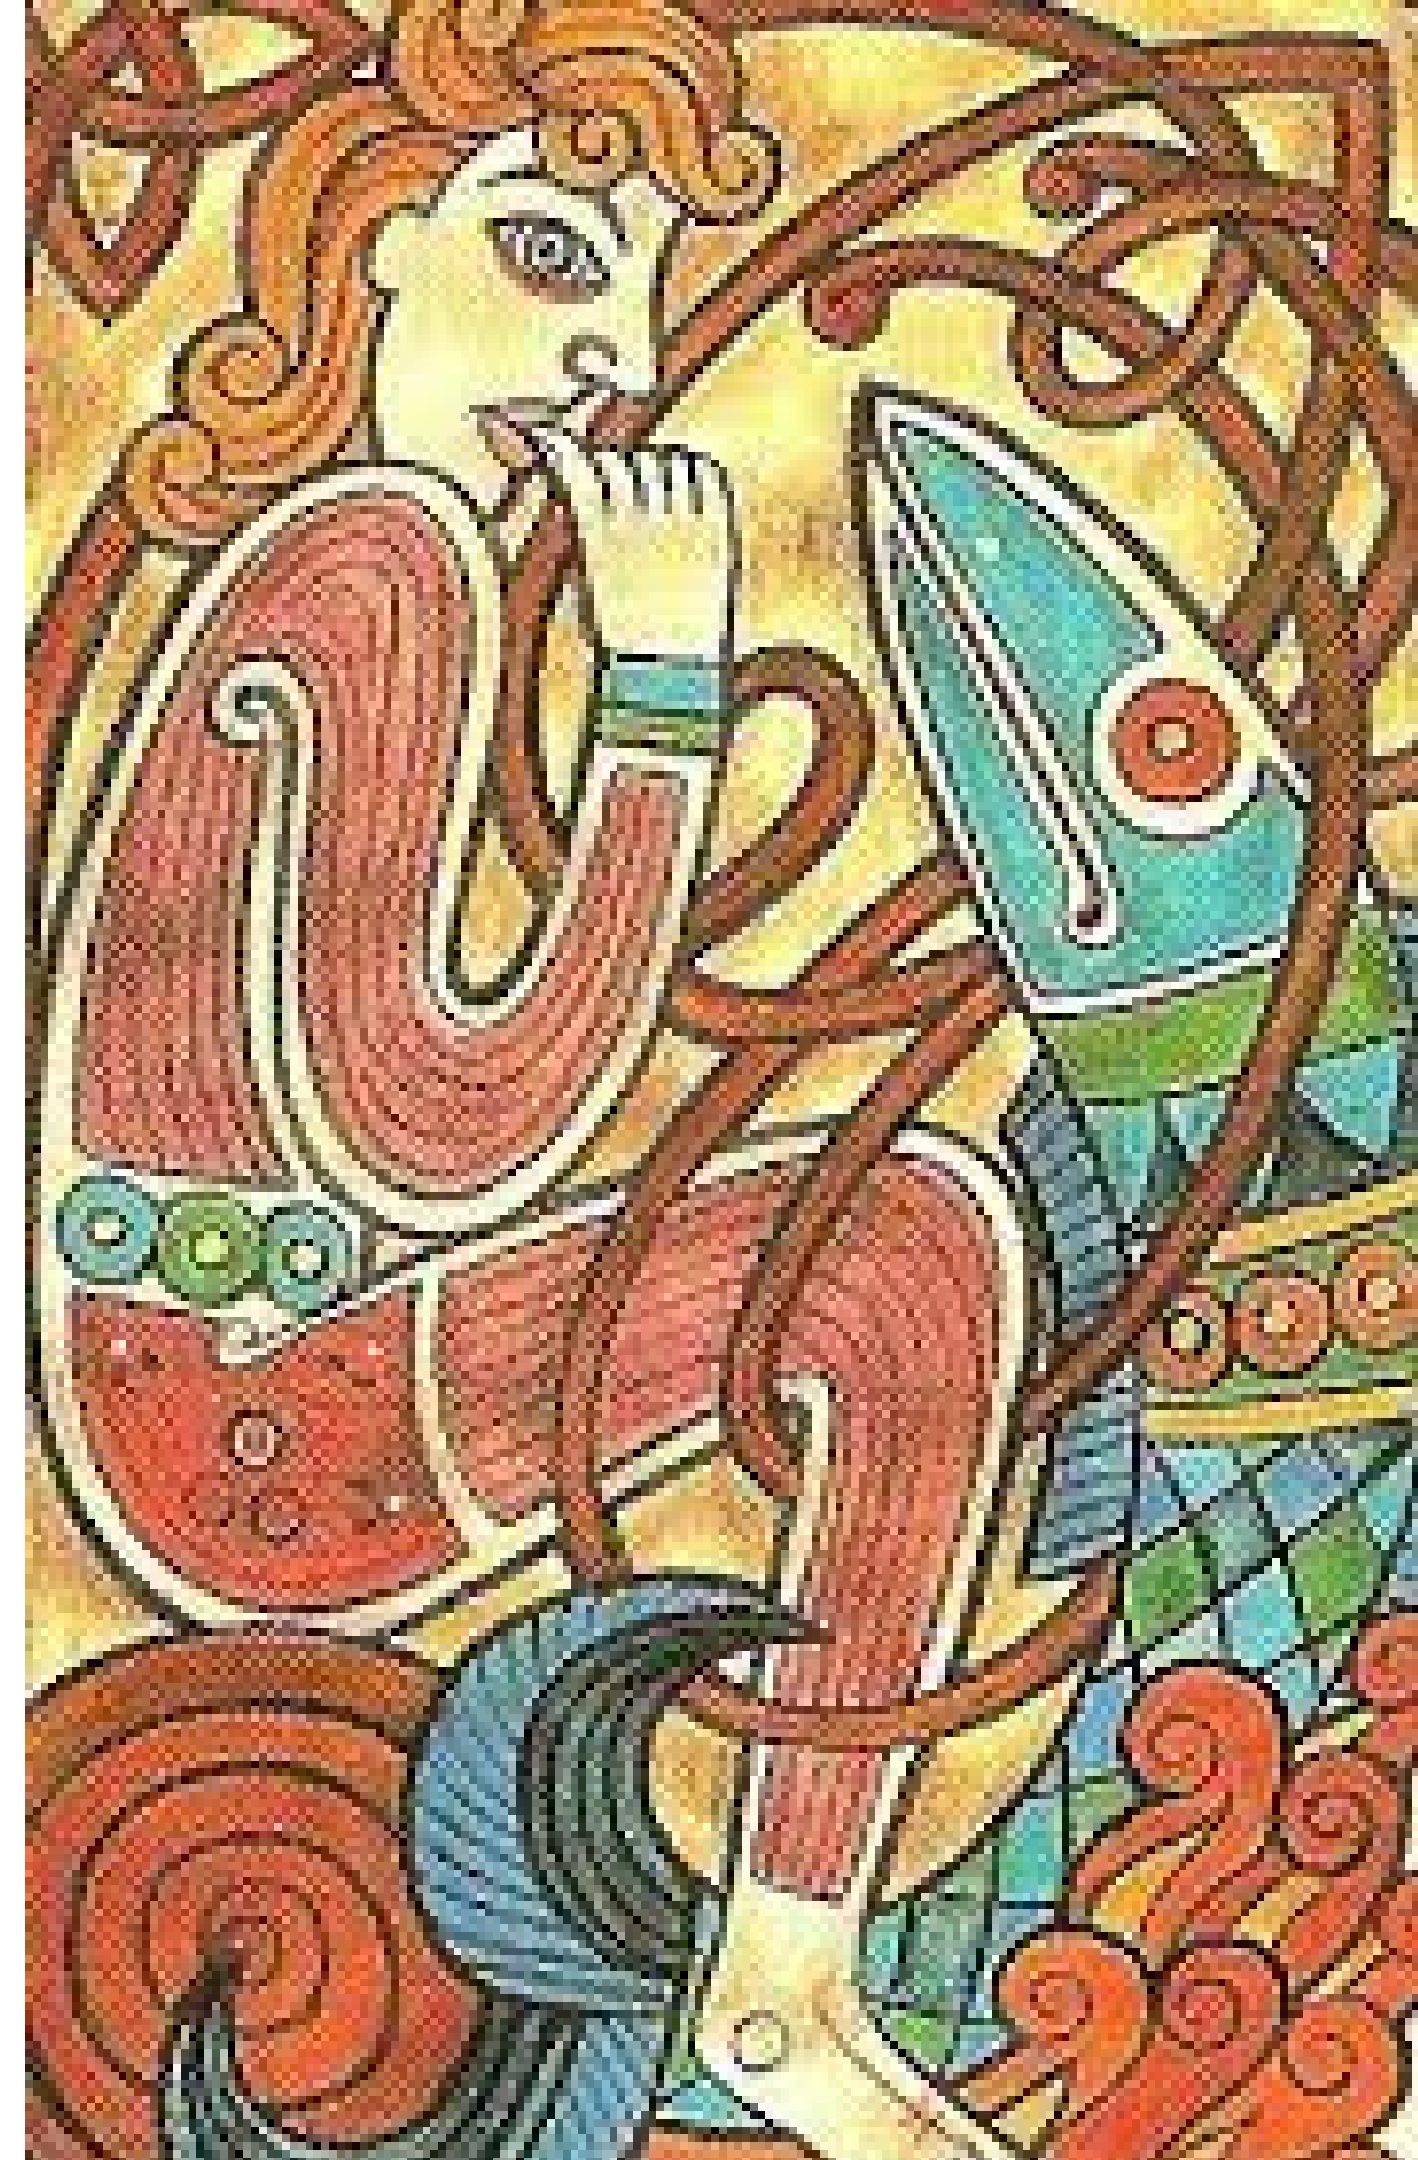

Riasg Buidhe, Colonsay

THE SALMON OF WISDOM

Ancient salmon relief in a cave

l'Abri du Poisson at Les Eyzies, along the Vézère river in the Dordogne, France

Glamis, Scotland

Glamis cross

Gundestrup Cauldron

eriyugenda

who was eriyugenda?

eriuḡena

who was eriuḡena?

“He is the Cause of all love and is diffused through all things and gathers all things together into one and involves them in Himself in an ineffable Return, and brings to an end in Himself the motions of love of the whole creature.”

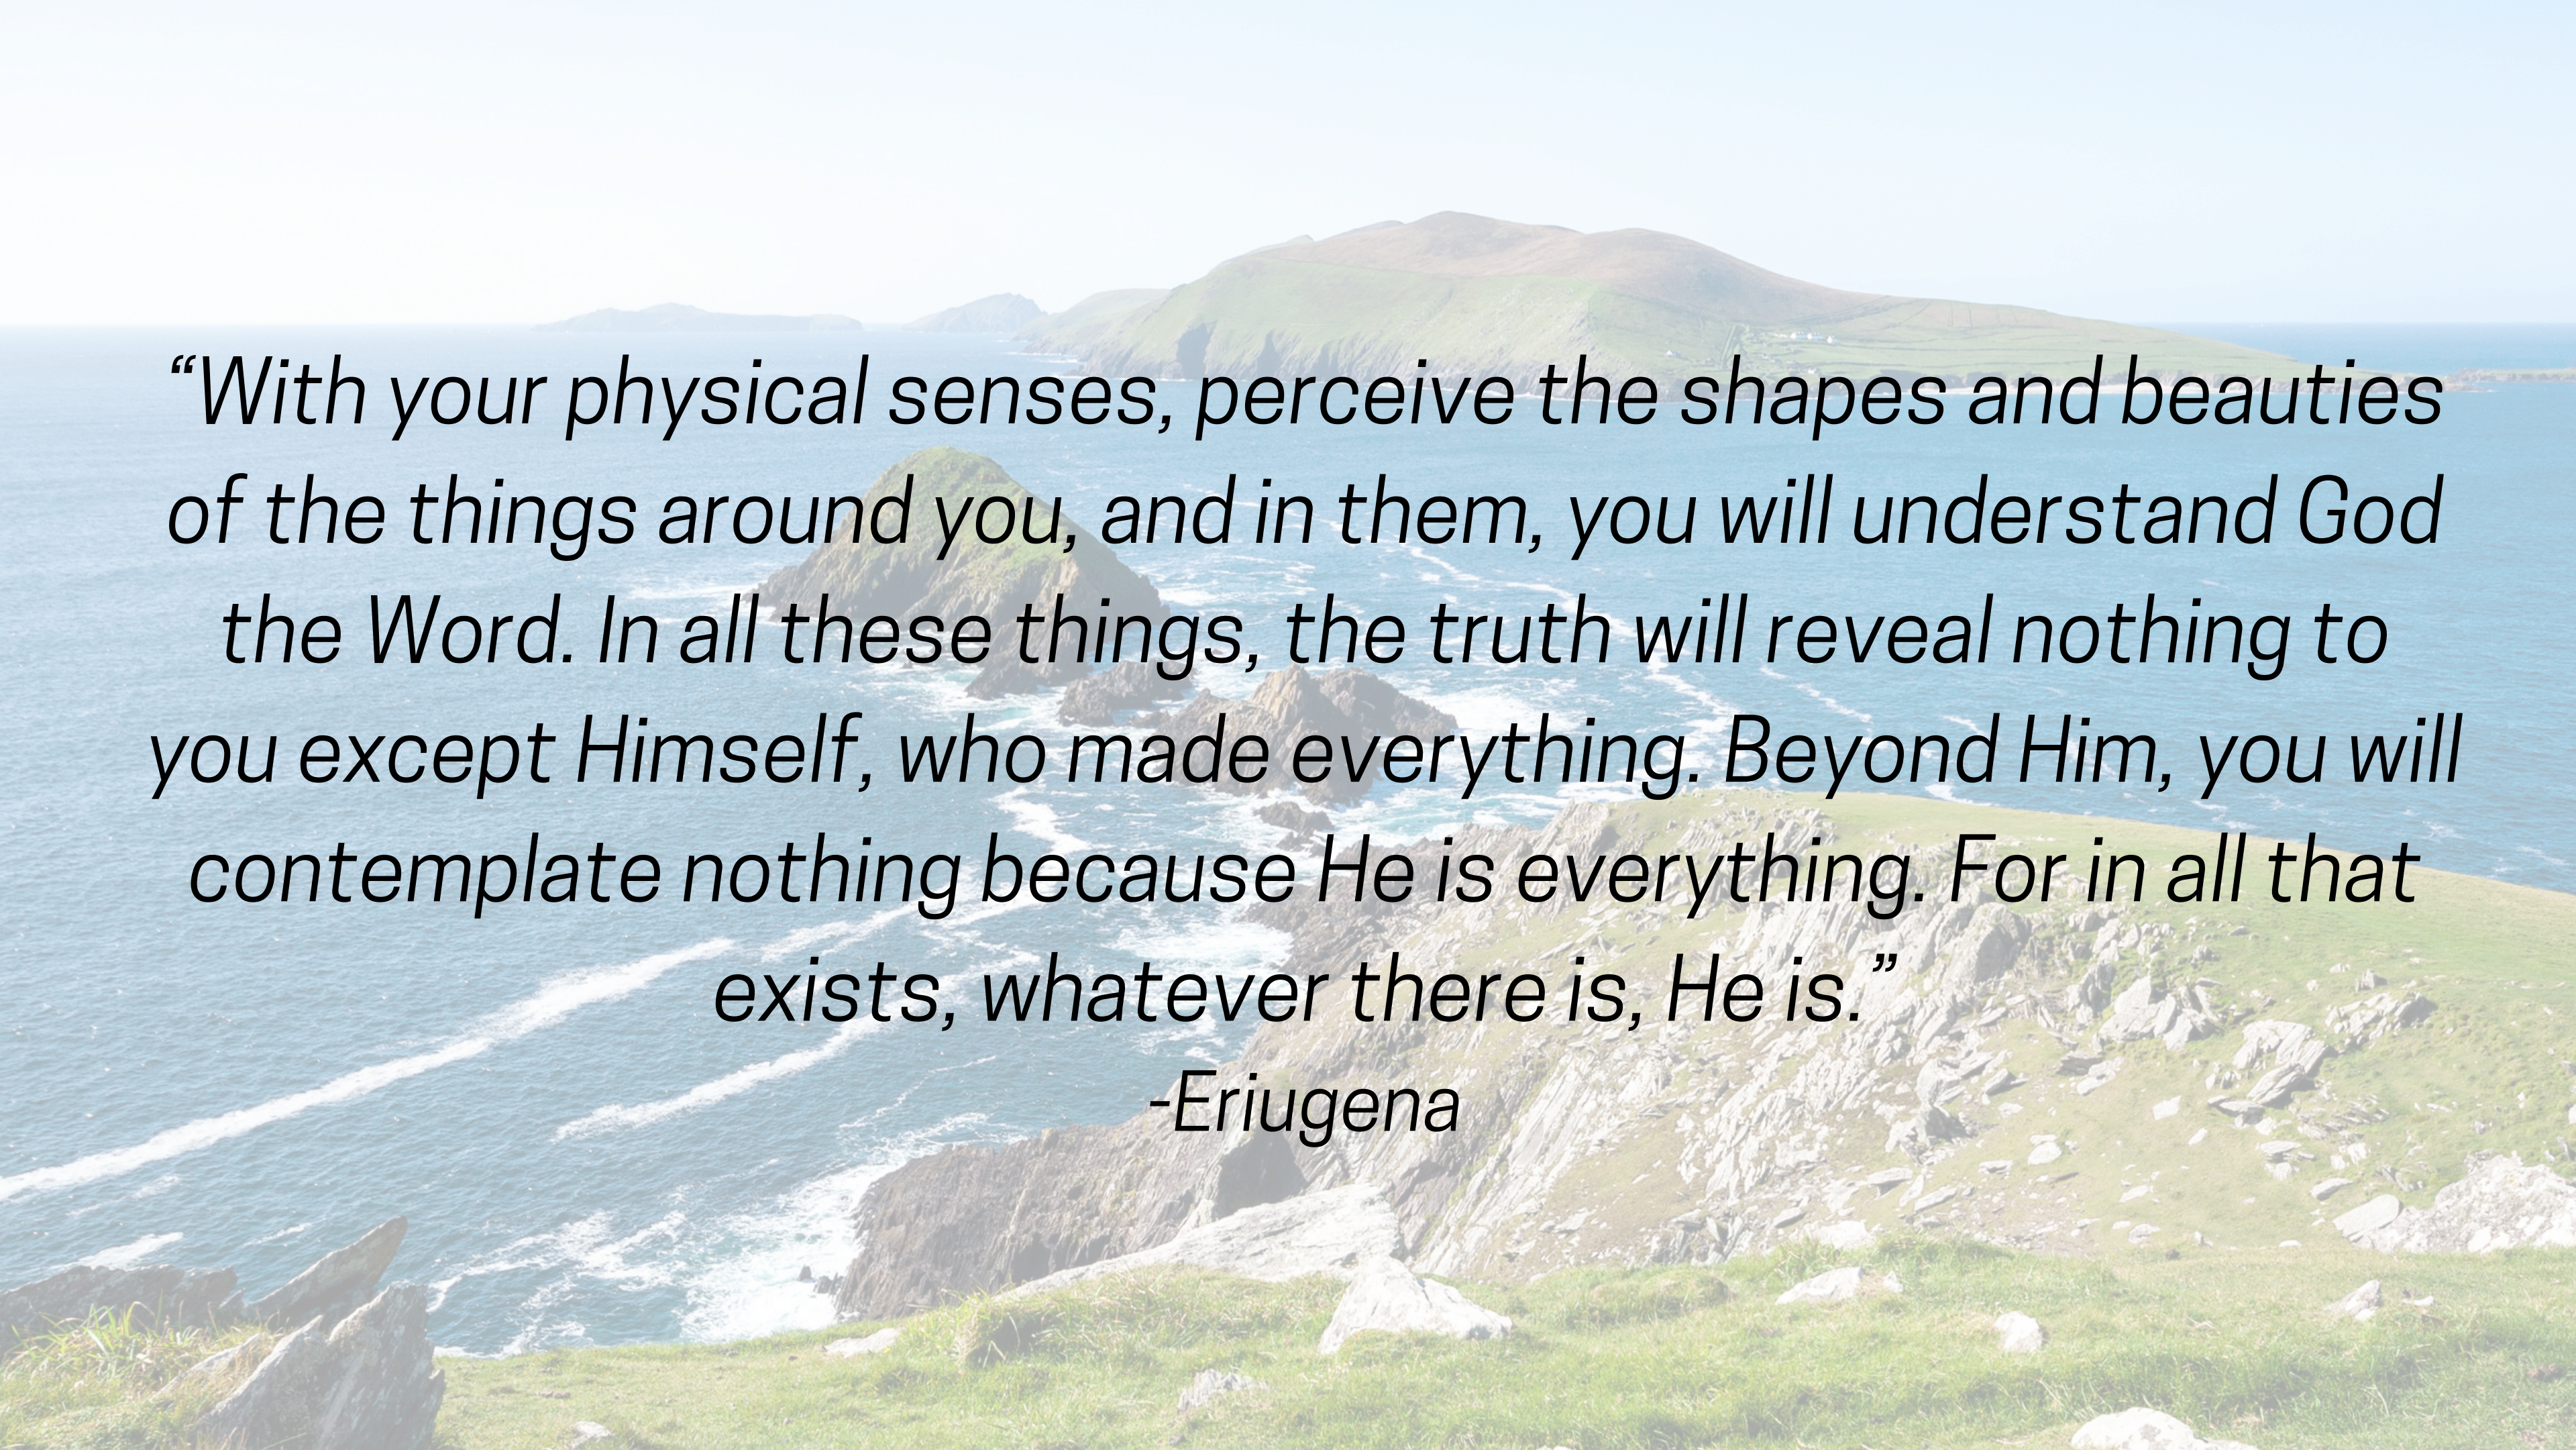

eriuḡena

who was eriuḡena?

Exitus and Reditus

we come from God and we return to God

“With your physical senses, perceive the shapes and beauties of the things around you, and in them, you will understand God the Word. In all these things, the truth will reveal nothing to you except Himself, who made everything. Beyond Him, you will contemplate nothing because He is everything. For in all that exists, whatever there is, He is.”

-Eriugena

via forma

www.via-forma.com